

other Deutsche Post DHL suppliers. Under the terms of the agreement some 100 employees of Deutsche Post DHL will transfer to T-Systems with effect from April 1, 2010.

"We view this contract extension with Deutsche Post DHL, and expansion of the range of services beyond traditional outsourcing and infrastructure management, as both recognition of what we do and as an incitation," stated Reinhard Clemens, Board Member Deutsche Telekom and CEO T-Systems. "Also, the new members of staff will give us sought-after specialist experience of the logistics sector and SAP. We are delighted to have signed a contract that will bring benefits to both parties."

As recently as mid-December T-Systems North America signed another agreement with Deutsche Post DHL covering service provision in the USA. On January 1, 2010 T-Systems took charge of the former Deutsche Post DHL computer center in Scottsdale, USA. This agreement also has a five-year term with a contract valued in the mid double-digit million euro range.
